
CONSTITUTION REVISION COMMISSION

2017 - 2018

BALLOT GUIDE

WHAT IS THE CONSTITUTION REVISION COMMISSION?

The Constitution Revision Commission (CRC) convenes once every 20 years to examine the Florida Constitution and propose changes for voter consideration. Created by Article XI, Section 2 of the Florida Constitution, the CRC is composed of 37 Commissioners. Proposed constitutional changes put forward by the CRC are placed on Florida's General Election ballot and must secure at least 60 percent voter approval to become part of the constitution.

WHAT DID THE CRC DO?

The 2017-2018 CRC held more than 15 public hearings across the State of Florida, the most of any CRC, reviewed thousands of public comments, identified issues that matter most to Floridians, and conducted months of in-depth research and debate, resulting in the CRC's recommended changes to the Florida Constitution.

On April 16, 2018, after more than a year of public meetings and deliberations, the CRC voted to place eight proposed constitutional revisions on the ballot for voter consideration. These eight revisions were submitted to the Florida Secretary of State on May 9, 2018, in the CRC's final report and will appear as constitutional amendments on the 2018 General Election ballot.

Five other constitutional amendments were previously placed on the General Election ballot by the Florida Legislature and citizen initiatives, and these amendments were numbered by the Secretary of State as Amendments 1-5. All CRC amendments will appear after these five and are numbered as Amendments 6-13.

AMENDMENT 8

School Board Term Limits and Duties; Public Schools

Ballot Summary

Creates a term limit of eight consecutive years for school board members and requires the legislature to provide for the promotion of civic literacy in public schools. Currently, district school boards have a constitutional duty to operate, control, and supervise all public schools. The amendment maintains a school board's duties to public schools it establishes, but permits the state to operate, control, and supervise public schools not established by the school board.
