5.2 Change of vote.—
After the vote, but prior to the announcement of the result of a roll call, a member may vote, or change his or her vote, and such vote shall be recorded in the Journal. 4. Final adoption of any proposal(s) as amended by the report shall require a vote of at least 22 members of the Commission and shall be recorded by oral or electronic roll call.

RULE SIX
MOTIONS AND PRECEDENCE

6.1 Motions; how made, withdrawn.—
Every motion other than a motion to amend a proposal under consideration, shall be made orally. At the request of the Commission Chair any motion shall be reduced to writing. After a motion has been stated or read by the Commission Chair, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Commission and, without a second, shall be disposed of by a vote of the Commission. The mover of the motion may withdraw a motion, except a motion to reconsider, as hereinafter provided, at any time before the same has been amended or before the vote shall have commenced.

6.2 Motions; precedence.—

When a question is under debate, the Commission Chair shall receive no motion except:

1. To adjourn instanter
2. To adjourn at a time certain
3. Questions of privilege
4. To take a recess
5. To reconsider
6. To limit debate
7. To temporarily postpone
8. To postpone to a day certain
9. To commit to a standing committee
10. To commit to a select committee
11. To amend

Those motions shall have a precedence in the descending order given above. The Commission Chair shall propound all questions in the order in which they are moved unless the subsequent motion be previous in nature; except that in fixing time, the longest time shall be put first. In all cases where the Commission shall be equally divided, the question shall be lost.

6.3 Motions which can be made but once.—
Motions to adjourn or recess shall be decided without debate by a majority vote of those present and voting. Only one substitute for a motion to adjourn shall be entertained. The substitute motion shall fix a different time for adjournment, and the same shall be put without debate, except that one (1) minute shall be allowed for the movers of the substitute to explain their reasons. The substitute motion having been lost, the question shall be put on the original motion, which, if lost, shall preclude any further motion to adjourn until other business shall have intervened.

6.4 Division of question.—
Any member may call for a division of a question when the sense will admit it. A motion to strike and insert shall be deemed indivisible; a motion to strike out, being lost, shall neither preclude amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

6.5 Reconsideration; generally.—
When a main question has been made and carried or lost, a Commissioner voting with the prevailing side may move for reconsideration of the question on the same or the next day on which the Commission meets. If the question has been decided by voice vote, any Commissioner may so move. Such motion may be made pending a motion to adjourn or if it is time to adjourn.
Consideration of a motion to reconsider shall be a special and continuing order of business for the full Commission when it next meets as the full Commission succeeding that on which the motion was made and, unless considered on said business day, shall be considered abandoned. If the Commission shall refuse to reconsider or, on reconsideration, shall confirm its first decision, no further motion to reconsider shall be in order except on unanimous consent of those present. When a majority of Commissioners present vote in the affirmative on any question but the proposition be lost because it is one in which the concurrence of more than a majority is necessary for adoption or passage, any Commissioner may move for reconsideration. On the last day on which the Commission meets, a motion to reconsider shall be taken up instantaneously.

6.6 Reconsideration; when debate allowed.—

Debate shall be allowed on a motion to reconsider only when the question which it is proposed to reconsider is debatable. Where debate upon a motion to reconsider is in order, no member shall speak thereon more than once nor for a longer period than five (5) minutes.

6.7 Reconsideration; collateral matters.—

The adoption of a motion to reconsider a vote upon any secondary matter shall not remove the main subject under consideration from the consideration of the Commission. A motion to reconsider a collateral matter must be disposed of at once during the course of consideration of the main subject to which it is related and such motion shall be out of order after the Commission has passed to other business.

RULE SEVEN
AMENDMENTS

7.1 General form; notice; manner of consideration.—
All amendments shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission on forms prescribed by the Secretary, but shall be considered only after the sponsor gains recognition from the chair to move for adoption. All amendments timely filed shall be heard and the sponsor given the opportunity to be heard unless said amendment is withdrawn by the sponsor. The Rules and Administration Committee shall establish amendment filing deadlines, and any amendments thereto.

7.2 Sequence of amendments to amendments.—
An amendment to a pending amendment may be received, but until it is disposed of, no other motion to amend will be in order, except a substitute amendment or an amendment to the substitute. Such amendments are to be disposed of in the following order:
1. Amendments to the amendment are acted on before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment shall be in order at a time.
2. Amendments to the substitute are next voted on.
3. The substitute then is voted on.
The adoption of a substitute amendment in lieu of an original amendment shall be treated and considered as an amendment to the proposal itself.
7.3 Amendment; germanity of amendment.—

Germanity.

1. Neither the Commission nor any substantive committee shall consider an amendment that relates to a different subject or is intended to accomplish a different purpose than that of the pending question or that, if adopted, would require a title amendment for the proposal that is substantially different from the proposal’s original title or that would unreasonably alter the nature of the proposal.

2. The Commission Chair, or the Committee Chair in the case of an amendment offered in committee, shall determine the germanity of any amendment when the question is timely raised.

3. An amendment of the second degree or a substitute amendment must be germane to both the main amendment and the measure to which it adheres.

7.4 Floor amendments out of order. —

A floor amendment is out of order if it is the principal substance of a proposal that has:

- Received an unfavorable committee report;
- Been withdrawn from further consideration; or
- Not been reported favorably by at least one committee of reference

And may not be offered to a proposal that is on consideration by the full Commission. Any amendment that is substantially the same, and identical as to specific intent and purpose, as the measure residing in a committee of reference is covered by this Rule.
8.1 Decorum and debate.—

When any member desires to speak or deliver any matter to the Commission, the member shall rise at his or her seat and address the Chair as Mr. or Madam Chair, and, on being recognized, may address the Commission from his or her desk, and shall confine any remarks to the question under debate, avoiding personality. A member shall not address or refer to another member by his or her first name. A member shall use the appellation of Commissioner, or such appellation and the surname of the Commissioner addressed.

8.2 Commission Chair’s power of recognition.—

When two (2) or more members rise at once, the Commission Chair shall name the member who is first to be recognized.

8.3 Interruption of members in debate.—

No member shall be interrupted by another member without the consent of the member who has the floor, except rising to a question of order.

8.4 Time for debate.—

No member shall speak more than ten (10) minutes in debate on any question. The introducer of a proposal under consideration shall be entitled to five (5) minutes to close, notwithstanding that the introducer may have used ten (10) minutes in opening.

8.5 Limitation on debate.—

When a proposal is under debate by the Commission, a member may move to limit debate, and such motion shall be decided without debate, except the introducer of a proposal shall have five (5) minutes to discuss said motion. If, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present, the question is decided in the affirmative, debate shall be limited accordingly.

8.6 Priority of business.—

All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

8.7 Questions of privilege.—

Questions of privilege shall be: (1) those affecting the Commission collectively, its safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings; and (2) the rights, reputation, and conduct of members individually in their representative capacity only. These shall have precedence over all other questions except motions to adjourn. Upon recognition of the Chair, no member shall be permitted to speak longer than ten (10) minutes on a question of privilege.

Debate shall be allowed on a motion to reconsider only when the question which it is proposed to reconsider is debatable. Where debate upon a motion to reconsider is in order, no member shall speak thereon more than once nor for a longer period than five (5) minutes.

Neither the Commission nor any substantive committee shall consider an amendment that relates to a different subject or is intended to accomplish a different purpose than that of the pending question or that, if adopted, would require a title amendment for the proposal that is substantially different from the proposal's original title or that would unreasonably alter the nature of the proposal.
2. The Commission Chair, or the Committee Chair in the case of an amendment offered in committee, shall determine the germanity of any amendment when the question is timely raised.
3. An amendment of the second degree or a substitute amendment must be germane to both the main amendment and the measure to which it adheres. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

7.45 Floor amendments out of order.—

The Rules and Administration Committee shall establish a calendar for consideration of proposals and other matters in such order or manner as it deems proper. The special order may be amended by a majority vote of the Commission.

RULE THREE

PROPOSALS

3.1 Objectives.—
The Constitution Revision Commission is vested with the duty to examine the Constitution of the State of Florida, as revised in 1968, and subsequently amended, hold public hearings, and file with the Secretary of State its proposal, if any. This Rule and each portion thereof addresses itself to the basic document under consideration, proposals for revision and procedures therefor.

3.2 Base document.—
The Constitution of the State of Florida, as revised in 1968 and subsequently amended, shall be the base document for all proposals. The Constitution shall be printed in legislative bill form.

3.3 Commission consideration of public issues.—
Constitutional issues raised by the public shall be identified and listed in numerical order according to the article and section of the Constitution to which they relate. Upon motion of a Commissioner and upon receiving an affirmative vote of at least ten (10) Commission members, issues submitted by the public shall be filed with the Secretary for consideration by the Commission. The moving Commissioner of a public proposal shall be deemed the sponsor of such proposal.

3.35 Commissioners’ proposals.—
Those issues submitted by Commissioners shall be reviewed by the Commission and the issue shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission for consideration by the Commission.

3.4 Form of proposals.—
Proposed revisions to the 1968 Constitution filed with the Secretary shall be incorporated onto written forms prescribed by the Secretary. The forms shall follow the form for bills used by the Florida Legislature. A proposal for revision shall address itself to the pertinent article, section, page, and line number of the 1968 Constitution, as amended, which it seeks to revise. Existing language proposed to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. Proposed new language shall be underlined. A proposal for revision of the Constitution shall be designated a proposal, and shall be referred to as such.

3.5 Proposals for introduction.—
All proposals submitted and receiving requisite consideration by Commission members shall be filed with the Secretary who shall serially number them and submit them to the Commission for any action as determined by the Commission. The Commission Chair shall refer proposals to the appropriate committees.

3.6 Substitute proposals.—
If a substitute proposal has been filed with the Secretary, when the original proposal is reached on the calendar, it shall be automatically tabled and the substitute proposal shall be available in lieu of the original proposal. Upon failure of a motion to consider the substitute proposal, consideration of the original proposal shall be the next order of business. The introducer of the original proposal may be shown by the Secretary as a co-sponsor of a substitute or may withdraw as a co-sponsor.

RULE FOUR
FULL COMMISSION; ORDER OF BUSINESS AND CALENDAR

4.1 Session of the Commission.—
The Commission shall meet pursuant to a schedule adopted by the Committee on Rules and Administration and approved by the Commission Chair. The schedule shall set forth the hours to convene and adjourn.

4.2 Quorum.—
A majority of the Commission shall constitute a quorum.

4.3 Daily order of business.—
The daily order of business shall be as follows:
1. Roll call
2. Prayer
3. Pledge of allegiance to the flag
4. Receiving communications
5. Introduction of proposals
6. Reports of committees
7. Matters on reconsideration
8. Special order as determined by the Rules and Administration Committee
9. Unfinished business
10. Correction and approval of Journal

The Secretary of the Commission shall prepare and distribute, on each day of session, a calendar corresponding to the Daily Order of Business; and within each order of business, matters shall be considered in the order that they appear on the daily calendar.

4.4 Motion to amend daily order of business.—
Any motion to amend the daily order of business shall be deemed as a motion to waive the rules.

RULE FIVE
FULL COMMISSION VOTING

5.1 Taking the yeas and nays.—
The Commission Chair shall declare the outcome of all votes, but if three (3) Commissioners immediately question a vote by a show of hands, the Chair shall take the vote. When the vote is completely recorded, the Commission Chair shall announce the result to the Commission, and the Secretary shall enter the result in the Journal.

5.2 Change of vote.—
After the voting, but prior to the announcement of the result of a roll call, a member may vote, or change his or her vote, and such vote shall be recorded in the Journal. After the vote has been announced, a member with unanimous consent of those present may change his or her vote on the measure and such vote shall be recorded in the Journal, except that no such change of vote shall be valid where such vote would alter the final outcome.

5.3 Casting vote for another.—
No member shall cast a vote for another member, nor shall any person not a member cast a vote for a member.

5.4 Adoption of proposals.—
1. A proposal that has been placed on the calendar pursuant to Rule 2.17 or 2.14, and in accordance with the special order established by the Rules and Administration Committee, shall require a majority vote of the Commission for further consideration of the proposal and for commitment of the proposal to the Style and Drafting Committee.
2. The Style and Drafting Committee shall review all proposals receiving approval of a majority of the Commission and shall prepare recommended ballot language. The Style and Drafting Committee may recommend amendments to proposals and may recommend the grouping of any related proposals.
3. A proposal on consideration after having been disposed of by the Style and Drafting Committee, may be amended or grouped by a vote of at least 22 members of the Commission.
4. Final adoption of a proposal shall require a vote of at least 22 members of the Commission.

RULE SIX
MOTIONS AND PRECEDENCE

6.1 Motions; how made, withdrawn.—
Every motion other than a motion to amend a proposal under consideration, shall be made orally. At the request of the Commission Chair any motion shall be reduced to writing. After a motion has been stated or read by the Commission Chair, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Commission and, without a second, shall be disposed of by a vote of the Commission. The mover of the motion may withdraw a motion, except a motion to reconsider, as hereinafter provided, at any time before the same has been amended or before the vote shall have commenced.

6.2 Motions; precedence.—
When a question is under debate, the Commission Chair shall receive no motion except:
1. To adjourn instanter
2. To adjourn at a time certain
3. Questions of privilege
4. To take a recess
5. To reconsider
6. To limit debate
7. To postpone to a day certain
8. To commit to a standing committee
9. To commit to a select committee
10. To amend
Those motions shall have a precedence in the descending order given above. The Commission Chair shall propound all questions in the order in which they are moved unless the subsequent motion be previous in nature; except that in fixing time, the longest time shall be put first. In all cases where the Commission shall be divided, the question shall be lost.
6.3 Motions which can be made but once.—
Motions to adjourn or recess shall be decided without debate by a majority vote of those present and voting. Only one substitute for a motion to adjourn shall be entertained. The substitute motion shall fix a different time for adjournment, and the same shall be put without debate, except that one (1) minute shall be allowed for the movers of the substitute within which to explain their reasons. The substitute motion having been lost, the question shall be put on the original motion, which, if lost, shall preclude any further motion to adjourn until other business shall have intervened.

6.4 Division of question.—
Any member may call for a division of a question when the sense will admit it. A motion to strike and insert shall be deemed indivisible; a motion to strike out, being lost, shall neither preclude amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

6.5 Reconsideration; generally.—
When a main question has been made and carried or lost, a Commissioner voting with the prevailing side may move for reconsideration of the question on the same or the next day on which the Commission meets. If the question has been decided by voice vote, any Commissioner may so move. Such motion may be made pending a motion to adjourn or if it is time to adjourn. Consideration of a motion to reconsider shall be a special and continuing order of business for the full Commission when it next meets as the full Commission succeeding that on which the motion was made and, unless considered on said business day, shall be considered abandoned. If the Commission shall refuse to reconsider or, on reconsideration, shall confirm its first decision, no further motion to reconsider shall be in order except on unanimous consent of those present. When a majority of Commissioners present vote in the affirmative on any question but the proposition be lost because it is one in which the concurrence of more than a majority is necessary for adoption or passage, any Commissioner may move for reconsideration. On the last day on which the Commission meets, a motion to reconsider shall be taken up instantaneously.

6.6 Reconsideration; when debate allowed.—
Debate shall be allowed on a motion to reconsider only when the question which it is proposed to reconsider is debatable. Where debate upon a motion to reconsider is in order, no member shall speak thereon more than once nor for a longer period than five (5) minutes.

6.7 Reconsideration; collateral matters.—
The adoption of a motion to reconsider a vote upon any secondary matter shall not remove the main subject under consideration from the consideration of the Commission. A motion to reconsider a collateral matter must be disposed of at once during the course of consideration of the main subject to which it is related and such motion shall be out of order after the Commission has passed to other business.

RULE SEVEN

AMENDMENTS

7.1 General form; notice; manner of consideration.—
All amendments shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commission on forms prescribed by the Secretary, but shall be considered only after the sponsor gains recognition from the Chair to move for adoption. All amendments properly filed shall be heard and the sponsor given the opportunity to be heard unless said amendment is withdrawn by the sponsor.

7.2 Sequence of amendments to amendments.—
An amendment to a pending amendment may be received, but until it is disposed of, no other motion to amend will be in order, except a substitute amendment or an amendment to the substitute. Such amendments are to be disposed of in the following order:

1. Amendments to the amendment are acted on before the substitute is taken up. Only one amendment to the amendment shall be in order at a time.
2. Amendments to the substitute are next voted on.
3. The substitute then is voted on.
The adoption of a substitute amendment in lieu of an original amendment shall be treated and considered as an amendment to the proposal itself.

7.3 Amendment by section.—
The adoption of an amendment to a section shall not preclude further amendment of that section or article. If an article is being considered section by section or item by item, only amendments to the section or item under consideration shall be in order. The Commission Chair shall, in recognizing members for the purpose of moving for adoption of amendments, try to consider all amendments to Section 1 first, then all amendments to Section 2 and so on. After all sections have been considered separately in lieu of the entire article, the whole article shall be open for amendment.

7.4 Amendment; germanity of amendment.—
No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

RULE EIGHT
DECORUM AND DEBATE

8.1 Decorum and debate.—
When any member desires to speak or deliver any matter to the Commission, the member shall rise at his or her seat and address the Chair as Mr. or Madam Chair, and, on being recognized, may address the Commission from his or her desk, and shall confine any remarks to the question under debate, avoiding personality. A member shall not address or refer to another member by his or her first name. A member shall use the appellation of Commissioner, or such appellation and the surname of the Commissioner addressed.

8.2 Commission Chair’s power of recognition.—
When two (2) or more members rise at once, the Commission Chair shall name the member who is first to be recognized.

8.3 Interruption of members in debate.—
No member shall be interrupted by another member without the consent of the member who has the floor, except rising to a question of order.

8.4 Time for debate.—
No member shall speak more than ten (10) minutes in debate on any question. The introducer of a proposal under consideration shall be entitled to five (5) minutes to close, notwithstanding that the introducer may have used ten (10) minutes in opening.

8.5 Limitation on debate.—
When a proposal is under debate by the Commission, a member may move to limit debate, and such motion shall be decided without debate, except the introducer of a proposal shall have five (5) minutes to discuss said motion. If, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present, the question is decided in the affirmative, debate shall be limited accordingly.

8.6 Priority of business.—
All questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

8.7 Questions of privilege.—
Questions of privilege shall be: (1) those affecting the Commission collectively, its safety, dignity, and the integrity of its proceedings; and (2) the rights, reputation, and conduct of members individually in their representative capacity only. These shall have precedence over all other questions except motions to adjourn. Upon recognition of the Chair, no member shall be permitted to speak longer than ten (10) minutes on a question of privilege.

RULE NINE
MISCELLANEOUS
9.1 Interpretation of rules.—
Mason’s Manual of Legislative Procedure shall govern the Commission and any committees established pursuant to these Rules in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are not in conflict with the Rules of this Commission, except that seconds to motions shall not be necessary. It shall be the duty of the Commission Chair, or the presiding officer, to interpret all rules, subject to appeal by any member.

9.2 Waiver and suspension of rules.—
These rules shall not be waived or suspended except by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all the members of the Commission. The motion, when made, shall be decided without debate. No motion to waive a rule requiring unanimous consent of the Commission shall be adopted except by unanimous consent of those present.

9.3 Changes in rules.—
All proposed amendments to these Rules shall be presented to the Rules and Administration Committee for recommendation to the Commission. Such recommendation may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Commission and shall be adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Commission.

9.4 Majority action.—
Unless otherwise indicated by these rules, all action by the Commission shall be by majority vote of those members present.

9.5 Supreme Court library temporary repository for Commission records.—
The Supreme Court library shall be provided with copies of the records for the purpose of creating an electronic record of the Commission process. All records of the Commission will be permanently stored with the Secretary of State, Division of Library Information Services, Bureau of Archives and Records Management.
